Robert J. Barba, a native of Pittsfield, Mass., is an economics major. Bob is a member of the Spanish and Sociology Clubs. After receiving his degree this year, he plans to do graduate study in sociology.

RAYMOND BRAULT
Raymond F. Brault, an economics major from Winooski, has been an active member of the Outing Club as well as the Mission Crusade during his four years at the Hilltop. Neil G. Diorio

Herbert H. Fuller, Jr.

NEIL DIORIO
Norwalk, Conn., gives us a diligent student of Biology in the person of Neil G. Diorio. When not found in the Science Building Neil is likely to be assisting Fr. Dube in the infirmary, a job to which he devotes much of his free time.

During these winter months he is an avid skier and when he is not studying or offering his aid as mentioned above you may well find Neil on the slopes of Mr. Mansfield.

HERBERT FULLER
An ex-Marine who has the maturity which comes from having been impressed by many experiences is this business major from Springfield, Mass.

Herbert H. Fuller, J., who incidentally is the only senior who has also been honored by being a member of "Who's Who," has spent his years at this college as an active participator in student activities and has served as the president of the Student Council this year.

TILLMAN KARR
Tillman J. Karr, a man of considerable depth which was apparent to those who have known him well, has spent much of his time while here at St. Michael's with the art of writing.

A contributor to our school magazine, the Lance, this English Major has shown a degree of ability which may well carry him into the writing profession. His home is in Saratoga, N.Y.

WILLIAM KENNEY
An economics major from Springfield, Mass., William J. Kenney has spent much of his time and energies delving into labor problems while at St. Michael's and was a delegate to the Labor Relations Committee where he was chairman of the board.

Bill has also made his presence felt in presiding over the Student Council.

JOHN KILGO
A philosophy major, John W. Kilgo is the only married veteran to receive this honor for outstanding scholarship.

An adopted son of Vermont and former resident of Tennessee, John and his wife live here in Burlington.

"COLOR OF SOUL"

We were really burning, and hope you were too, when we read of the prejudice against a negro couple in Burlington. This couple had just purchased a new home in a newly developed section of Burlington when they, and, with shame, all of Vermont, learned of the unfriendly reaction of their future neighbors, because of the color of their skin.

PREVIOUS RESENTMENT, NONE

It is safe to judge that these two people are not wealthy. They have to work to make a living; save to realize their ambition; and, unjustly, to hear the "connotations of disgrace" which go with their people. They do not appear to have been the center of any previous resentment because of their habits and actions. Now this.

"INALIENABLE RIGHTS?"

This couple has the innate right to possess property, provided that they can prove shrewd enough to manage to budget their earnings. They have now purchased a house and have every right to keep it and dwell in it as long as they can meet the payments.

A MATTER OF VALUES

The local morning paper, while interviewing residents in the disputed vicinity, came up with a quote which stated that the presence of negroes could and would "make it hard to get rid of it (any neighboring property)." This insinuates that the presence of negroes would lower the value of the property. When this "noble interviewer" made that statement it is to be wondered if he realized that his presence might lower the value of neighboring lots and houses? We ought to use a little reason before we throw out quotes for public display.

"RED HERRINGS?"

This couple are members of God's creation and, since they possess a spiritual soul, are not to be singled out for discrimination, whether by word or deed, without just reason. The alleged threatening of the worth of property does not in itself warrant any such action. The individuals in question are regular Sunday visitors at the exercises of the church of their choice, the Free Methodist. Is this not an important item in the present argument? One may indeed wonder how many of their would-be neighbors are also regular members, and that means every Sunday, at church services.

"COLOR" OF SOUL

The negro couple have expressed their determination to move into their new home. "I don't mind if these people move in. They have to live somewhere, why not here?" This is the attitude of one of the residents in the disputed area interviewed by the local morning paper. And why not? What is more important, color of body, or "color" of soul?

Knights & Knaves Opener, "Angel Street"

The Knights and Knaves Dramatic Society has once again readied Austin Hall for their first production of the year which will be "Angel Street," a victorian thriller by Patrick Hamilton. The first performance will be Thursday and Friday evening, January 15 and 16 at 8:15.

DR. CITTERELLA DIRECTS

The play is being directed by Dr. Armand Citarella and will be his first production on the Austin Hall stage. Leading the cast are Pat Stancliff as the sensitive wife who is being driven to neurosis by her scheming husband, played by Tom Geno. Don McGael is the friendly detective with the long memory. Also included in the cast for this coming production are Doris Henry as the housekeeper and Maureen King who will portray the precocious maid.

EXPERIENCED CAST

All of the cast have enjoyed considerable experience on the local stage and have been groomed for their next per-

Science Answers The Epidemic

While polio was striking 55,000 Americans in 1952, the same number was to figure prominently in MARCH OF DIMES research seeking a control for infantile paralysis. Late in the year, announcement was made of preliminary findings on the first human trials of gamma globulin, a blood fraction which had effectively immunized monkeys against paralytic polio. The first trials of the substance on human beings were conducted with 55,000 children living in hard-hit polio areas at Provo, Utah, Houston, Texas and Sioux City, Iowa. The tests, conducted by scientists from the University of Pittsburgh, were financed by the MARCH OF DIMES.

The preliminary findings demonstrated conclusively that gamma globulin is effective in giving human beings some degree of temporary immunity to the disease. This was a tremendous step toward polio control, although it did not mean that the end of the road had been reached. Most important was the realization that, for the first time, science had been able to check the course of paralytic polio in the human body. As he struggled toward his ultimate goal of a lasting preventive and control, man knew that the end of the road lay within his reach. MARCH OF DIMES research was pointing the way.

By FRAM HOBEN

With this final first semester issue of the MICHAELMAN the policy of changing in mid-stream which the sports department has adhered to for the past three years, once again will be upheld. Yours truly will step down from this post and make way for our good right arm of the last year and one-half, Bill Wigmore.

Bill has been a great asset to both the column and the paper in general, and a willing work horse at all times. His tenure of office will begin sometime in early February, and while his incombance will be a little less interesting nationally than the one in Washington a few weeks earlier, it will nevertheless insure readers of good and intelligent coverage of athletics on the S.M.C. scene.

As we step down, it seems but a short time ago that Bill Keogh was doing the same for us, we can look back on a lot of interesting occurences of the past nine school months. To recount all of them would be impossible because of number and time. Yet to our way of thinking the mostest of the bestest can fill these categories:

Biggest victory: That 19-0 win over U.V.M. last October. The Knights forward wall annihilated the Cats passing game so completely, that only the famous Washington crash of mid-December can top it as the air disaster of the year.

Toughest loss: Again football, this time Arnold's 13-9 upset. That one ended a 10 game win streak and was the first loss in ten outings on the three season's old home field.

Biggest disappointment: Vermont's basketball win in the first game (81-73). We didn't believe the Cats could do it, and still didn't when it was over.

Biggest surprise: The sensational play of the Knights in the Brandeis hoop encounter last month especially in the first quarter. The Knights shot for 43% and looked sensational at times against the strong Judges.

Top Purple performer: It just has to be Paul Aumand. Besides gaining all New England honors in football, Paul also led the hoopsters in scoring (222) and set a new Boston Garden record by netting 14 points in one quarter versus Tufts.

Best opponent met: No doubts about this one -- St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., in basketball.

Best intramural athlete: John "Sam" O'Brien, since transferred. During softball season not even Austin Hall was safe from Sam.

Top laugh producers: Coach Dan Tarpey of the Ryan I Intramurals, a combination of Joe Lapchick and Ben Blue.

Best individual performance: Aumand's 31 points against Tufts, and Witte's 26 versus Brandeis.

First Competition For Ski Team

The newly formed ski team got its first taste of competition last weekend while taking part in the 10 team meet at Lyndon, Vt. The Knights finished with low point total behind Dartmouth, Middlebury, Vermont, Williams, New Hampshire, Maine, Harvard, Norwich and Colby.

RESERVES NEEDED

Captain Thomas A. Cootey, USAF, coach, was satisfied, however. It was by far the strongest competition that any of the squad members have been up against. Some of the boys lack even high school experience. Still the team needs more members and anyone who would like to lend a hand and their skis at the next meet should contact Captain Cootey.

Don LaBrake and Bob O'Brien showed up well for the Knights. LaBrake did some fine skiing in both the downhill and slalom. S.M.C.'s biggest problem is the cross-country where there are few experienced men.

NORWICH NEXT

The Norwich Winter Carnival on the 13 and 14 of February will give the team opportunity for improvement. Most of the teams there will be a B class. Even though they are green the Knights showed that they can hold their own with B teams. Dartmouth, Middlebury, both of whom have Olympic aces on their rosters, and Vermont are perennially strong A teams.

Other squad members for S.M.C. are Jack Bourdon, Dave Holmes, Bob Mellen, John Rixon, Bill Willett, Dick Montgomery, Billy Weihs, Larry Drew, Dick Krug, Bob Gasser, Andy MacEntee and Hugh McCann.

LIKE TO SKI?

All interested skiers and novices will have a chance to see a new technicolor film on the sport never seen in this area before. The new film will be shown at Austin Hall, Wednesday evening (Feb. 4) at 8:30.

Sponsoring is the Varsity ski team to whom all of the benefits will go. Admission for the 1½ hour show will be 50¢.

The ski team needs the backing of all Michaelmen to carry out their ambitious program for the winter.

ARE YOU TOUGH ENOUGH FOR THIS JOB?

If you can make the grade, the U.S. Air Force will award you a commission, your wings and pay you over $5,000 a year!

CAN YOU "take it" 6 days a week? For 52 weeks? Can you meet the high standards required to be an Aviation Cadet? If you can—then here's a man-size opportunity! An opportunity to serve your country and build a personal career that will fit you for responsible positions both in military and commercial aviation.

It won't be easy! Training discipline for Aviation Cadets is rigid. You'll work hard, study hard, play hard—especially for the first few weeks. But when it's over, you'll be a pro—with a career ahead of you that will take you as far as you want to go. You graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year. And this is only the beginning—your opportunities for advancement are unlimited.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE?

To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

YOU CAN CHOOSE BETWEEN PILOT OR AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

If you choose to be an Aircraft Observer, your training will be in Navigation, Bombardment, Radar Operation or Aircraft Performance Engineering.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks! HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will arrange for you to take a physical examination.
3. Next, you will be given a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet Training Class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

Where to get more details: Visit your nearest Air Force Base or Air Force Recruiting Officer. OR WRITE TO: AVIATION CADET HEADQUARTERS, U. S. AIR FORCE, WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

DENTON MACCARTY

From Burlington, Vt., comes Denton E. MacCarty, a member of the Biology, Outing, and Sociology Clubs. He also found time to actively participate in the N.F.C.C.S. and Mission Crusade Clubs. Denton is a biology major and plans to continue his studies in medical school.

A native of Burlington, Erald has actively participated in the Sociology and Outing Clubs. He is an English major and plans to teach next year.

PHILIP MINKO

If success in the business world can be said to be a function of ones grades received in college, then Philip P. Minko of Troy, N.Y. will be a man to keep your eye on.

Here is an example of a student who made well of his four years here at St. Michael's, but who also found time for student activities which are a part of college life as well.

WILLIAM O'BRIEN

William J. O'Brien has lent invaluable assistance to "Doc" Jacobs during the past years. This history major from Thompsonville, Conn., passed many happy semesters here at S.M.C. But those semesters were continually broken up so that he could "cover the gardens" for one of the Braves' Farm Clubs.

EDWARD O'GORMAN

Edward C. O'Gorman, an English major from Bradford, Vt., has had an active career at St. Michael's serving as Editor-in-Chief of the Lance and director of the Pen & Mike Club.

EUGENE O'NEILL

Eugene P. O'Neill of Brattleboro, Vermont is one of the very few classics majors to attend St. Michael's not to mention the relatively small number who have been given the honor of being members of Delta Epsilon Sigma.

He has been a frequent contributor to the Lance and is at present anticipating a career in the teaching profession.

REV. MARK TENNIEN

Among the three alumni who will be honored by admission into Delta Epsilon Sigma, the most widely known is Rev. Mark A. Tennien, the Maryknoll missionary who wrote the current best seller, "No Secret is Safe." Father Tennien who spoke here last year following his release from a Red Chinese prison, earned his bachelor's degree from St. Michael's in 1922. He played sports, especially football, and founded the Mission Crusade on campus.

During the second world war, he wrote "Chungking Listening Post" which was also a best seller. His brother, Rev. William Tennien, is pastor of St. Mark's Church in Burlington, and another alumnus.

REV. FRANCIS MORIARTY

Fr. Moriarty earns his key by virtue of his office as president of St. Michael's. Since his choice as head of St. Michael's, Father Moriarty has received further honors. He was recently elected president of the New England Catholic College Education Association.

HUGH O'BRIEN

Hugh O'Brien received his bachelor's degree in 1930 after a career that found him high scholastically and a star on the baseball field. He taught at Dannemora high school in New York, went to Notre Dame for advanced schooling. There he soon headed the Criminology Department. His work in that field attracted the attention of Governor George N. Craig of Indiana. He is currently serving Gov. Craig as secretary for Penal Affairs and will have charge of a complete overhaul of the Indiana Correctional system.

By BOB LEVINS

Old St. Nick was given a big assist in making the Christmas season merry for hundreds of St. Michael's students and graduates as several alumni chapters sponsored their annual dance and social evening during the past vacation.

SPRINGFIELD CLUB

The Very Rev. Francis Moriarty, S.S.E., president of St. Michael's, was guest of honor at the dinner dance of the Springfield, Mass., Chapter. The affair was held at Rovelli's on the Boston Road in Springfield on the evening of Monday, December 29, and attendance was reported as good. The alumni gave Father a clock-radio.

NEW YORK - NEW JERSEY

BERKSHIRE OUTING

In Pittsfield, Mass., the Berkshire County Chapter played host to a large gathering of students, alumni and friends. Everyone had a very enjoyable time at the annual Christmas dance and party held on Friday evening, December 26 at the White Tree Inn.

BOSTON PARTY

The Rev. Leon E. Paulin, S.S.E., Rev. Raymond M. Poirier, S.S.E. and Dr. Jeremiah K. Durick as well as a good gathering of graduates and their friends were at the Lincolnshire Hotel in Boston where the Boston Chapter held its party and dance the night of Monday, December 29. Boston area students, however, were disappointingly conspicuous by their absence.

CAPITOL DISTRICT CLUB

The Capitol District Club of undergraduates in Albany, N.Y., held a very successful get-together and dance Monday night, December 29, at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel. Father Eymard P. Galligan, S.S.E., representing the alumni office, was one of the many merry-makers at the DeWitt Clinton that night.

CONN. UNDERGRADS

At the Three Cups in Meriden, Conn., the Connecticut Undergraduate Club entertained a good crowd of students and alumni with its holiday dance and party held Monday evening, December 29.
